VOL. XXXIII.

STANFORD, KY., FRIDAY, APRIL 21, 1905.

NO. 15.

Cold Weather In 1834.

Most of us older people will remember Uncle Tommy Tuggle, deceased, father of Jerry and Henry Tuggle, and grandfather of Capt. Wm. Sloan, and the following statements bring him afresh in our minds:

Capt. William Sloan and J. A. (Dean) Tompkins, Esq., handed us a time-worn slip of paper on which was written, by Uncle Johnny's own hand, verbatim: "May 14, 15 and 16, 1834, there is a hard frost and ice one-half an inch thick." These lines were evidently written by Uncle Johnny at that time and placed between the lids of his family Bible, where they have remained since, and will be kept there by his succeeding generations, probably for many years to come, as it is kept and cherished as an heirloom.

On that occasion Tommy Scott had 100 cattle to die on the Cumberland mountain from eating buds and leaves killed by frost. Corn was bit to the top of the ground and corn went up to $1 per bushel on the mountain.—Albany Gleaner. Handed us by Mr. J. C. Hays.

Memorial of Garland James.

Uncle "Garl" is gone, oh how we miss him!

How we miss his vacant chair,
How we miss his dear old presence
And we miss him everywhere.

There hangs his cane his brother gave him,

Now about two years ago
And it will hang as a family relic
And his pleasures and his love.

Weep not children, weep not for him,
For your loss is his gain.
Of that crown for which he labored
For which he labored not in vain.

In our mind's eye we can see him
At the place that he did love
Which was the place of public worship
In the church of Pine Grove.

His aim was not for fame or fortune,
Only this he inward craved,
Sweet assurance, long endurance
And a home beyond the grave.

F. L. DAVIS.

FLATWOOD.—Ebb Scott sold a bunch of hogs to W. L. Lawson at 44c. J. W. Coldiron sold a work horse to John Miller for $100. Wm. Campbell sold Ebb Scott three hogs for $14. J. C. Fox bought a cow and 10 white oak trees of J. C. Clouse for $60; he also bought 12 trees from T. M. Marsee for $50. J. C. Clouse sold to W. H. Furr eight hogs at $4.35. School at Lawson's school house has been dismissed on account of sickness, the teacher, Miss Maud Spainhower, and her mother both being sick. Dr. W. J. Edmiston, of Crab Orchard, was called to the bedside of Mrs. Wm. Pointer Sunday. Miss Willie Corniney and Mrs. W. H. Furr visited Mrs. John McCarty, at Rowland.

This is to be an awful year according to a wild-eyed Pennsylvania prophet who has just issued his bulletin of prophecies for 1905. He says the big spot that has appeared upon the sun is ominous, it foretells rebellion, pestilence and natural catastrophes upon the earth. The outbreak in Russia is but a spark that will be fanned into a flame that will sweep the whole world. The end of the world, he predicts, comes in 1908.—Somerset Journal.

Rheumatic Pains Quickly Relieved.

The great pain relieving power of the liniment has been the surprise and delight of thousands of sufferers. The quick relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. ## The Powers That Be.

Let the eyes of the stars
And the face of the moon
On my fetters and bars
Freely look and commune.

Let the scent of the grass
And the breath of the rose
In their wanderings pass
With a balm for my woes!

Let the birds come and rest
In the sound of my sighs,
Let them twitter and nest
In the sight of my eyes.

But for man, I will none
Of his sermons and creeds,
For his dogmas alone
Put a ban on my deeds.

He would shackle my soul,
Make me bow at his throne,
Read a narrow writ scroll
That I never shall own.

I will lean to the earth,
To the mountains and sea,
To the source of my birth,
And the powers that be.

I will lay my heart bare
As the breast of a brook.
I was shaped by their care—
Let them ponder and look!

—Howard H. Farmer.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers by it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for lagrippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

Higgins—My wife says if I should die she would remain a widow until death. Of course, she might change her mind, but it is sort of consoling, just the same.

Jinks—Evidently your wife thinks there is no other man in the world like you.

Higgins—On the contrary, she's afraid there is, and that she'd get him.—Boston Transcript.

Bub—You talk about table manners; I don't believe you even know what a napkin is.

Sis—Yes, I do. It's a little sleep after eating.

Bub—Who told you that?

Sis—I guessed it; my own self. "Manikin" is a little man, you know, "so napkin" must be a little nap.—Boston Transcript.

Cheated Death.

Kidney trouble often ends fatally, but by choosing the right medicine, Mr. E. H. Wolfe, of Bear Grove, Ia., cheated death. He says: "Two years ago I had Kidney Trouble, which caused me great pain, suffering and anxiety, but I took Electric Bitters, which effected a complete cure. I have also found them of great benefit in general debility and nerve trouble and keep them constantly on hand, since I find they have no equal." G. L. Penny, Stanford, and Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard, druggists, guarantee them at 50 cents.

JUDGE W. R. CARSON.

Judge W. R. Carson, known by almost every man, woman and child in this county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. Porter Staggs, in Fayette county, Wednesday evening at 7:30, aged 78. The judge had been a resident of Stanford for many years until he removed to Fayette a year ago. He was in feeble health when he left and many of his friends predicted that they would not see him alive again. He became stronger after a short sojourn with his daughter, however, and until the illness that caused his death came, he suffered very little. Judge Carson was magistrate and police judge for 38 years, both of which offices he filled with credit. For years he did a saddlery and harness business here and was reasonably successful in it. He was an unusually well posted man on current events and a great reader. He loved Stanford and in his palmer days he did much for its advancement. A trustee of Stanford Female College, he worked hard for its furtherance. In fact he took great interest in educational institutions and was always for that which would redound to the upbuilding of his home town and the uplifting of his people. Judge Carson married Miss Permelia Dodd, who preceded him to the grave 23 years. He is survived by five children, Mesdames A. A. Warren, of Middlesboro, J. E. Portman, of this place, S. P. Staggs, of Fayette, Mr. James T. Carson, of Louisville, and Charles C. Carson of Liberty, and in their loss of a kind and indulgent father they have much sympathy. The remains were brought here last night and at 10:30 this morning they will be interred in Buffalo cemetery. Rev. P. J. Ross will pray and make a few remarks at the grave.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

In the Hargis trial at Lexington Mose Feltner again detailed the alleged plots to take the life of Cockrill, while Dan Bush, a new witness, said that Hargis asked him to assist in the murder of Cockrill. Bush is serving a term in the penitentiary for horse-stealing. W. W. Vaughn, a former attorney of Jackson, but now of Oklahoma, also gave damaging testimony against Hargis.

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion, don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefitted by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by Lyne Bros., Crab Orchard.

His conformation is that of a first-class hunter, with a powerful garden, being a horse of a great deal of finish, style and substance and bone.

He is bound to be the popular horse of the future, owing to the extreme speed and action that is required to demand high prices. The leading horsemen of the country are buying him, and he is the only stallion owned in the State, and with his breeding should make a great sire.

Will make a good sire in 1905 at "Monnietta Farm," Danville at $25 to insure a living colt or $20 to insure a living colt when three or more mares are bred.

Clay King, with any kind of stud opportunities, would today be in the first fight of successful sires of extreme speed. His stud career is practically just beginning, and he is already being sought by the State who does not regard him as a wonderful sire of early and extreme speed. Every man at the Lexington track has seen his get accomplish what has never been done before in the history of the track. He has even seen his yearling step quarters in 13 1/4 seconds and then sell for starting prices; they have seen his older progeny, and have seen him speed, gameness and combine race horse qualities as those of any sire ever quartered in Kentucky.

Clay King will make the season of 1905 at the low price of $125.00 to the breeding colts. The owner will retain the right to sell the colts at any time, and will retain all care will be taken to prevent accidents to stock entrusted to our care, but should any occur we will not be responsible for the same.

McKINNEY ROLLER MILLS.

1 offer for sale my mill and residence in McKinney, Ky. The mill has a capacity of 50 barrels and meal 150 bushels per day. Mill is well equipped with modern machinery in good repair. Has storage capacity 3,000 bushels of wheat; also large corn bins and cribs. Also has a large room for office, storeroom and ice house. All under roof. Never failing water in mill lot. Mill is within 100 feet of Cincinnati Southern R. R track and has private siding. The location is good for the following reasons: 1. It is the best wheat belt in many of the largest wheat and corn growers in Lincoln county, large territory furnishing custom grinding. The feed and coal business in connection with mill pays well. 2. It is a desirable place to live. 3. The residence is a two-story, six room frame, with cistern on back porch. Milk house at back door cemented; all comparatively new. Large barn, buggy house in mill lot. On a small tract of 10 acres, a fine apple orchard, generally, my physicians have advised me to quit the milling business. # MASTIC MIXED PAINT

Can't Be Touched

for painting houses. The reason's plain. * Mastic is the purest, therefore the most durable and economical. There is a whole string of "other fellows" claiming "just as good as Mastic" but they don't prove it. Maybe they can't. The analysis of Mastic is published. It's made of pure lead, zinc and linseed oil—the most durable kind of paint—and its purity is therefore unquestioned.

As purity means durability, the splendid wearing qualities of Mastic have given it the title of "The Kind That Lasts," and this title is backed up by our absolute guarantee. Mastic is made by PEASLEE - GAULBERT CO., Inc.

THE play, David Garrick, is founded upon an imaginary incident in the life of that famous English actor of the 18th century. The actors' part is well taken by Lloyd Huey; leading lady, Claudia Eaton; the sport, George Hopper; man of fortune, James Newland; other players and mirth provokers are Misses Ida Moore and Bessie Yantis, Hubert Carpenter, James and George Vaharsdale, Robert Waters, Beverly Rout and Fred Cook.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is a thing of beauty and a joy forever since it has put on its new dress. We fear Brer Walton will step too high and suspect that he indorses this republican prosperity and wants to declare in a silent but passive way that everything should catch the spirit of improvement. The INTERIOR JOURNAL is a good paper, the editor a good man, if he were not politically blind. "Don'tcher know."—Casey News. Thanks for your kind words, Brer Thomas, but it is not because of republican prosperity that the I. J. flourishes. Eternal vigilance and unceasing and untiring effort on the part of those who work for its furtherance "is the cause of it all."

BRYAN.—Hon. William Jennings Bryan was in town Tuesday and Wednesday but he did not stay long enough to make his presence known to many. He was going to and returning from Williamsburg, where he delivered his famous lecture, "The Value of an Ideal," to an immense throng. The editor of this paper had the honor of a few minutes' talk with the distinguished gentleman, who was in perfect health and fine spirits. He remembered having spoken here in the Goebel campaign and spoke feelingly of that gentleman, who gave his life for the cause of democracy. Mr. Bryan was traveling alone and occupied a seat in the ladies' car with other people of much less distinction. While waiting for his train for Somerset, he drove from Junction City to Danville and made a brief speech at the court-house there on economic questions.

THE well-known and popular comedy, David Garrick, to be given this evening at the Graded School promises to be a great success.

A GRAY mare came to my place last week. Owner can get her by paying for her keep and this notice. J. V. McKenzie, Maywood.

THE Central Kentucky Medical Association held an interesting meeting here yesterday. A large number of doctors answered to roll call.

SEE the High School in their first appearance on the stage to-night at the auditorium. The work of these young actors would do credit to many professionals.

THE Young Ladies Mission Circle will give an open session at the Christian church next Sunday night at 7:30. Members of all other churches are cordially invited.

THE S. H. S. team defeated Lancaster Wednesday by a score of 13 to 9. Although the S. H. S. is the smaller, our boys showed that they are well-trained and knew just how to play the game.

AT present Mr. H. J. McRoberts, the clever and up-to-date gent's furnisher, is our most liberal advertiser. His "ads" occupy 1 1/2 columns of our space and if you do not read them you are missing some mighty good things.

AT the entertainment at the Graded School this evening for the Athletic Association, 35 cents will be charged for reserved seats, 25c for general admission and 15c for children. Seats on sale at McRoberts' drug store.

DAVID GARRICK is interesting, refined in humor, full of spice and attractiveness. The pretty love story, country Londoners and the actors' art are most effective. Miss Allie Huffman will be pianist. As to Miss Huffman's talent, charm and quality of music there can be no dispute.

HOCKER.—Mr. Joseph F. Hocker, a mention of whose death appeared in our Tuesday's paper, was 58 years old and he left a widow, who was Miss Mary E. Riley, and six children, viz: Mesdames W. O. Speed, of this place, D. S. McKinney, of Lafollette, Tenn., and W. G. Blankenship, of Burgin, and Messrs. Clarence Hocker, of St. Louis, James C. Hocker, of Livingston, and Richard Hocker, of Pittsburg. Mr. Hocker's home was at Pittsburg, and he came to the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. O. Speed, eight weeks ago for medical treatment, but a kidney trouble had gotten in its work and constant medical attention and careful nursing were of no avail and the end came peacefully at 1:30 Tuesday morning, surrounded by as devoted a wife and children as ever lived. Rev. P. J. Ross preached a splendid funeral sermon at Mr. Speed's Wednesday morning after which the remains were gently laid to rest in Buffalo cemetery. Mr. Hocker was a druggist at McKinney for 15 years and moved from that place to Junction City, where he was agent for an express company a long time. He was a member of the Methodist church and an exceedingly kind-hearted, clever man. His popularity was shown by the large number of friends who came from a distance to pay their last respects to him. Much sympathy is felt for the widow and children in their irreparable loss.
